

Limited customization options

Slow loading times

Expensive premium plans

Difficulty integrating third-party apps

Lack of advanced SEO features

Limited e-commerce capabilities

Inconsistent mobile responsiveness

Restrictive design templates

Confusing user interface

Limited storage space

Difficulty importing/exporting content

Limited blogging features

Inability to create multilingual websites easily

Issues with SSL certificates

Limited customer support options

Lack of dynamic content options

Limited design flexibility

Difficulty integrating social media platforms

Limited control over website backups

Inability to create custom forms easily

Limited font choices

Difficulty tracking website analytics

Inconsistent image quality

Limited options for password-protected pages

Inability to easily add custom code

Limited options for image galleries

Difficulty creating a customized contact form

Limited options for video backgrounds

Inconsistent image alignment options

Difficulty setting up email marketing campaigns

Limited options for customizing headers and footers

Inability to easily create a custom navigation menu

Limited options for image filters

Difficulty setting up online booking systems

Inconsistent color customization options

Limited options for adding custom animations

Inability to easily create a custom search function

Limited options for customizing product pages

Difficulty setting up payment gateways

Inconsistent options for creating custom pop-ups

Limited options for adding custom icons

Difficulty setting up membership portals

Inability to easily create a custom homepage layout

Limited options for creating custom pricing tables

Difficulty setting up event registration forms

Inconsistent options for creating custom sliders

Limited options for adding custom social sharing buttons

Difficulty setting up live chat functionality

Inability to easily create a custom 404 error page

Limited options for creating custom testimonial sections