

Lack of funding for education programs

Inadequate resources for schools

Inequitable distribution of resources among schools

High teacher turnover rates

Teacher shortages in certain subject areas

Overcrowded classrooms

Lack of support for students with special needs

Limited access to technology in schools

Inequitable access to quality education for low-income students

Overemphasis on standardized testing

Lack of professional development opportunities for teachers

Inadequate training for teachers on new education policies and practices

Insufficient support for English language learners

Lack of support for students experiencing trauma or mental health issues

Inadequate support for students from diverse backgrounds

Limited access to early childhood education programs

Inadequate funding for school infrastructure and facilities

Lack of support for students experiencing homelessness or housing instability

Inadequate support for students experiencing food insecurity

Lack of support for students in foster care

Inequitable disciplinary practices that disproportionately impact students of color

Lack of culturally relevant curriculum and teaching practices

Limited access to career and technical education programs

Inadequate support for students with learning disabilities

Lack of support for students with behavioral challenges

Inequitable access to advanced coursework and extracurricular activities

Inadequate support for students transitioning from high school to college or career

Lack of support for students experiencing bullying or harassment

Inequitable access to high-quality early childhood education programs

Inadequate support for students with chronic health conditions

Lack of support for students experiencing substance abuse or addiction

Inequitable access to resources for students in rural areas

Lack of support for students in juvenile justice facilities

Inadequate support for students with incarcerated parents

Limited access to mental health services in schools

Inequitable access to high-quality teachers

Inadequate support for students with limited English proficiency

Lack of support for students experiencing trauma due to natural disasters

Inequitable access to resources for students in urban areas

Inadequate support for students with undocumented immigration status

Lack of support for students in military families

Inequitable access to resources for students in tribal communities

Inadequate support for students with physical disabilities

Lack of support for students experiencing cyberbullying

Inequitable access to resources for students in alternative education programs

Inadequate support for students in temporary housing situations

Lack of support for students with cognitive disabilities

Inequitable access to resources for students in charter schools

Inadequate support for students with chronic absenteeism

Lack of support for students from marginalized communities in the curriculum and teaching materials