

Lack of affordable housing options

Difficulty finding a rental property in a desired location

High rental prices

Unresponsive or negligent landlords

Poor maintenance and repairs in rental units

Noise disturbances from neighbors

Limited parking availability

Inconsistent or unfair lease terms

Difficulty getting security deposits back

Fear of eviction or sudden rent increases

Inadequate security measures in rental properties

Limited pet-friendly rental options

Lack of amenities in rental buildings

Inconvenient or unreliable public transportation options

Difficulty finding a rental property that meets specific accessibility needs

Limited storage space in rental units

Concerns about potential mold or pest infestations in rental properties

Limited flexibility in lease terms

Lack of privacy in rental units

Inconvenient or insufficient laundry facilities in rental buildings

Challenges with roommates or co-tenants

Difficulty communicating with landlords or property management companies

Concerns about the safety of rental neighborhoods

Inadequate heating or cooling in rental units

Lack of natural light in rental properties

Challenges with getting repairs or maintenance issues addressed in a timely manner

Restrictions on decorating or personalizing rental units

Limited options for short-term or month-to-month rentals

Concerns about lead paint or other environmental hazards in rental properties

Inconsistent or unfair application screening processes

Difficulty finding a rental property that allows smoking or vaping

Limited options for furnished rentals

Concerns about potential discrimination in the rental process

Challenges with finding a rental property that allows for home-based businesses

Difficulty finding a rental property that allows for subletting

Inadequate or outdated appliances in rental units

Concerns about the stability of rental properties or potential foreclosure

Limited options for energy-efficient or environmentally-friendly rental properties

Challenges with getting repairs or maintenance covered by landlords or property management companies

Inconvenient or insufficient garbage or recycling facilities in rental buildings

Restrictions on hosting guests or parties in rental properties

Concerns about potential bed bug infestations in rental units

Inadequate or outdated plumbing in rental properties

Challenges with obtaining renter's insurance or meeting other rental requirements

Limited options for off-campus student housing

Difficulty finding a rental property that allows for storing bicycles or other recreational equipment

Concerns about the quality of schools or other amenities in rental neighborhoods

Inconsistent or insufficient communication from landlords or property management companies

Limited options for rental properties with outdoor space or access to green areas

Challenges with finding a rental property that allows for roommates or subletting