

Confusing or cluttered interface

Slow loading times

Poor navigation

Lack of feedback for user actions

Unintuitive design choices

Inconsistent branding or messaging

Lack of accessibility features

Limited customization options

Overuse of pop-ups or notifications

Difficult registration process

Lack of search functionality

Poor error handling

Hidden or hard-to-find features

Limited mobile responsiveness

Invasive or irrelevant ads

Long forms or checkout processes

Lack of personalization

Limited content filtering options

Confusing terminology or language

Overwhelming amount of information on one page

Lack of clear calls to action

Inconsistent design across devices

Limited feedback on user input

Lack of user control over settings or preferences

Difficulty in finding help or support resources

Limited support for multiple languages or regions

Lack of integration with other platforms or services

Slow or unresponsive customer service

Lack of clear onboarding process for new users

Limited options for sharing or saving content

Lack of visual hierarchy

Overly complex or technical language

Limited feedback on user progress or completion

Lack of confirmation for important actions

Limited options for user feedback or suggestions

Lack of transparency in data collection or privacy policies

Limited options for account management or security settings

Overly aggressive marketing tactics

Lack of updates or improvements over time

Limited support for assistive technologies

Inconsistent or confusing user flows

Over-reliance on text-based instructions

Lack of integration with social media platforms

Limited options for user customization or personalization

Lack of clear information on pricing or fees

Limited options for reporting bugs or issues

Lack of clear instructions or guidance for completing tasks

Limited options for adjusting settings or preferences

Lack of support for users with different abilities or needs

Limited options for accessing customer support or assistance